NOTICE TO THE COURT

Comes now Petitioner, Lawrence Nunley pro se, and respectfully gives this Honorable court Notice that he has submitted the necessary paperwork to pay the filing fee in this cause of action. Further, Nunley states to this Honorable Court as follows:

1. Nunley is the Petitioner in the above-captioned cause of action.
2. Nunley filed a motion to proceed in forma pauperis.
3. This Honorable Court subsequently denied Nunley's request and ORDERED him to pay the filing on or before February 14, 2019.
4. On January 31, 2019, Nunley submitted the necessary paperwork to have the business office send the filing fee to this Honorable Court.
5. Nunley does not have control over his Inmate Trust Fund Account.
6. As of February 12, 2019, the facility still had not processed the paperwork and sent the money to this Honorable Court.

7. Nunley has made a good faith effort to comply with this Honorable Court's ORDER and should not be penalized for failures on the part of the facility, who control the funds the Court has required Nunley to pay.
8. Therefore, Nunley asks this Honorable Court to either extend the deadline due to the facility's non-compliance and/or issue an ORDER compelling the facility to process the paperwork.
9. Nunley brings this motion in good faith and not for dilatory purposes.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays this Honorable Court will grant this motion and all other relief the Court may deem just and proper within the premises.

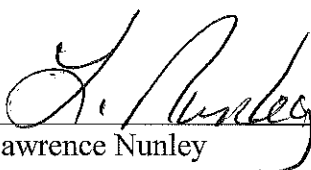

Respectfully submitted,

Lawrence Nunley

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I, Lawrence Nunley, hereby verify, under the penalties for perjury, that on the 12th day of February 2019, a true and accurate copy of the foregoing Notice to the Court was placed in the institutional mail, properly addressed to the prison's legal library and accompanied by the appropriate consent form and a request for E-Filing services. The Respondent was automatically served on the same date as this court through the E-Filing services mandated at the Wabash Valley Correctional Facility.
